FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THE MISSNER GROUP ANNOUNCES TWO NEW LEASES AT TOUHY INDUSTRIAL PLAZA

(Des Plaines, Illinois) – The Missner Group is pleased to announce two new leases at Touhy Industrial Plaza in Des Plaines, Illinois. Angela Aeschliman, CPM, CCIM, and senior vice president of property and asset management for The Missner Group presided over the lease negotiations.

In the first transaction, The Missner Group leased 10,332 square feet of space to Evo Coin Services, Inc. The privately held coin dealer supply company is relocating from a nearby facility. The firm selected Touhy Industrial Plaza for its prime location. John D’Orazio of Colliers International represented Evo Coin Services in the lease negotiations. The Missner Group was represented by Brendan Green and Jonathan Kohn of Colliers International.

Stanco Welder & Machinery Co., a delivery and repair service for replacement welding materials, renewed their lease at the property. Occupying 7,778 square feet, the company has been the building for over 30 years. The tenant was self-represented in the transaction and Aeschliman of The Missner Group oversaw the negotiations for ownership.

Touhy Industrial Plaza, built by The Missner Group in 1977, is managed by the firm. Located at 500 East Touhy Avenue, just west of Wolf Road, the property is 69,000 square feet and situated on 3.19 acres. The multi-tenant property offers flex and manufacturing space and is conveniently located near O’Hare International Airport and numerous Interstates.
